These aim to enhance connections within and across areas, helping to share learning on what works well and build partnerships that can make a difference.

Welcome

Linsey Farrell Programme Director,
Urban Villages Initiative, The Executive Office

Welcome to this first edition of the Urban Villages FOCUS Magazine. I am excited to share with you some of the great work that people in the Urban Village communities are doing, not only to make a difference in their own lives but also to impact on others who live, work and visit their areas.

The aims of the Urban Villages Initiative are, to strengthen communities by helping to build capacity and increase sustainability, to improve the area by investing in regeneration of places and spaces and to foster positive community identity so that ultimately people can live better together.

You will read about fantastic projects and programmes that are led by community groups and participants to support these aims; you will also find out about the Shared Learning events where groups will showcase their great achievements with others.

We want to give people in Urban Village communities the chance to be part of shaping the place where they live, to increase their skills and to embrace opportunities that will improve their life chances.

To recognise the range of fantastic projects that are already underway in communities, you can nominate your favourite project for an Urban Villages Award and you can read more about this inside.

People are working together in and across Urban Village areas and we are keen to encourage this and build on it for the benefit of everyone across the five Urban Village areas.

I hope you find our new FOCUS Magazine informative and we would really encourage you to get involved in the projects and plans in your area.

We will be issuing it three times a year so if you would like to receive copies and be kept up to date on the work of the Urban Villages Initiative in your area, please use the contact details at the back of this issue to join our mailing list.

Best Regards,

What is the Urban Villages Initiative?

The Urban Villages Initiative is designed to improve good relations outcomes and develop thriving places where there has been a history of deprivation and community tension.

The Urban Villages Initiative is a headline action within the NI Executive's Together: Building a United Community Strategy.

It is designed to support communities and to work collaboratively across government departments, councils, and other interested parties to achieve the 3 inter-connected aims for each Urban Village area through a series of capital investment and community-led projects.

THERE ARE 3 INTER-CONNECTED AIMS

WHAT DOES THE URBAN VILLAGES INITIATIVE DO?

Through the Urban Villages Initiative, the Northern Ireland Executive offers a real opportunity for residents of Urban Village areas to inform and shape the development of the place where they live and work; to have a voice and influence investment, to build social cohesion and improve local amenities, based on what communities see as their local priorities.

The Urban Villages Initiative has conducted extensive community engagement across all five Urban Village areas with local residents, community organisations and other stakeholders. This has informed the development of a Strategic Framework for each area. These remain the foundation of area based plans for these places.

Uniting Colin and EastSide Programme

UNITING COMMUNITIES PROGRAMME

Colin Glen Trust and TIDES training are currently working in partnership to deliver the 'Uniting Colin and EastSide Programme' which is funded through the Department for Communities (DfC) and based in Urban Village areas.

This good relations programme aims to engage young people aged 11-16 in sport, physical and creative activities that bring communities together and improve attitudes of young people in relation to other religious, political, ethnic and marginalised communities. The programme also includes a youth leadership element involving 16-24 year olds.

Colm Fanning, Social Development Manager at Colin Glen Trust said "In September we had nearly 170 young people from the Urban Village areas of Colin and EastSide in Belfast engaged in fun and participative activities in Castlewellan Forest Park as part of the Community Relations and Cultural Awareness Week programme.

This event is part of the Uniting Colin and EastSide programme and we plan to promote good relations messages and promote understanding and respect among our young people"

Fergus Devitt Director of Active Communities Division in DfC said "The central focus of this programme is to recognise the role that young people can and do play in building a united community. The Uniting Colin & EastSide programme aims to use innovative ways to build good relations between communities."

Linsey Farrell, Programme Director, Urban Village Initiative, said

"It is great to be working collaboratively with the Department for Communities on this project, we are delighted that the Uniting Colin and EastSide programme is being rolled out in Urban Village areas, where the focus is on building the capacity of young people, giving them a voice and supporting them to make positive plans about living better together."

Tales from the Living Room

At EastSide Arts Festival

Urban Villages Initiative in EastSide

EAST BELFAST

Hosford Homeless Project invited the Community to a live and interactive public installation on the Rooftop Garden of the Skainos Centre in August.

The 'Tales from the Living Room' installation explored, celebrated and brought to life the rich and diverse social history of East Belfast in the 1950's. Created by Hosford's life skills Co-ordinator Arlene Megaw and Artist Ciara O'Malley it was an EastSide Arts Festival Highlight on opening night of this year's festival.

This was a collaborative project with funding for the project provided by the Urban Villages Initiative, EastSide Arts and the Ulster Scots Agency. Resources were supplied by Partisan Productions, Tesco, Scene Dock, Belvoir Players Props, Shaws Sweets, Restore East Belfast Mission, Historian Philip Orr, Local writer Jack Gallagher and Digital Archive.

Throughout a series of workshops, the Hosford Clients and Community Gardeners worked together to build the set and worked closely with Partisan Productions to create characters and events relevant to this era, and the Performance Artists popped up at different intervals in the installation.

Close to 100 people from the community attended on opening night with a total of nearly 300 visitors over the week. A local resident commented that the 1950's props and set triggered lots of happy memories for them and they wanted to see more social history themed events in the future.

Pocket Park

The Urban Villages Initiative is continuing to invest in the local community in EastSide by supporting organisations in the development of a number of projects aimed at improving the lives of people in the area. All projects shown are funded by the Urban Villages Initiative in EastSide.

A previously derelict site on the corner of Connswater Street and Newtownards Road in East Belfast has been transformed. Landscaping, paving, planting, street furniture and six shipping containers have turned the site into an attractive pocket park on the edge of C.S. Lewis Square.

The remaining containers will become a cycle café further enhancing the site and providing the ever-increasing number of visitors to the area with a place for rest and refreshments.

The colourful Luminaries and Legends mural, which was also funded by Urban Villages Initiative, completes the site, providing an eye-catching welcome to EastSide Visitor Centre and the surrounding area.

One of the containers will be home to the first Sustrans NI Active Travel Hub from which commuters will be encouraged to try alternative forms of transport- using public transport, cycling or walking. This is a perfect location for the hub as it is on the intersection of both the Comber and Connswater Greenways and can make use of C.S. Lewis Square for cycle training and more.

Commenting on Facebook Emma Drury, a local East Belfast resident said “Looks absolutely amazing. A great corner of a beautiful community space. Good on all of you, quite the job.”

Going Green

 INITIATIVE SUPPORTED BY

During the summer this year, the Urban Villages Initiative supported Going Green and Refresh Café projects (East Belfast Mission) to build partnerships in East Belfast with the relaunch of the Garden Café.

The Lord Mayor Nuala McAllister was present as long term Refresh Café Volunteer Linda Watson cut the ribbon to open the Garden Café.

The Going Green group in Partnership with Belfast City Council Community Outreach planted annual flowering plants and created a gardeners rest space.

Going Green have been working in partnership with Avoniel Community Gardeners and Walkway Community Centre on a 'Living The Greenway' series of events this year with Connswater Community Greenway, which led to a Green Living Fair at CS Lewis Square.

Going Green helped out at EastSide Learning Literary Fair in August. They made Poetry Flags, reading poetry, giving out free books from our Mobile Library Kart and providing a healthy food snack for children attending the event at CS Lewis Square.

CONGRATULATIONS! James and Anna Jordan met working in the Avoniel Community Garden and four years later they married in the same place as part of the Green Living Fair in June.

Luminaries and Legends artwork

“Amazing work East Belfast is wonderful”
Colin Scott

EastSide Partnership commissioned local artist Dee Craig to create a new piece of artwork in partnership with Canadian artist Irish Nowa for the EastSide Visitor Centre on Newtownards Road.

As part of the project a number of paint sessions with local people were held at which they painted sections of the final artwork.

The piece entitled, Luminaries and Legends, was unveiled in March and celebrates some well-known East Belfast people and places including; Sir Van Morrison, C.S. Lewis, George Best, Gary Moore, Danny Blanchflower, Harland & Wolff, Holywood Arches, Marie Jones, James Ellis, Sam McCready, Eric Bell, Strand Arts Centre and more.

Artist Dee Craig commented:
“Public mural art is a very powerful form of communication and leaves a collectively expressive, lasting visual legacy, but equally as important as the product is the process behind it; this type of project creates a platform for community involvement, education and ownership, giving participants the opportunity to explore, learn about & celebrate aspects of their culture, history and identity in a creative process”.

“Wow! That looks class”
Colin McAlister

“Great artistry. Very evocative and so many memories. Well done”
Andrew Stewart

DEVELOPING CAPITAL PROJECTS

- Foster positive community identities
- Build community capacity
- Improve the physical environment

The Urban Villages Team recently invited proposals for capital projects to inform the development of a pipeline of potential projects in the EastSide Urban Village area. These proposals were assessed for strategic fit with Urban Villages aims and outcomes. Projects which met the minimum standard are now being taken forward with community partners to develop design options and associated business cases.

Ultimately, all successful capital projects will address the core aims of the initiative by fostering positive community identities, building community capacity and improving the physical environment in the Urban Village area.

Shared Learning Programme

FIND OUT ABOUT SHARED LEARNING EVENTS ACROSS URBAN VILLAGE AREAS

Local groups and organisations working across the five Urban Village areas have a wealth of experience in developing innovative approaches to community challenges and opportunities.

A strength of the Urban Villages Initiative is the platform it provides to build connections within and across areas – helping to share learning on what works well and build partnerships which can make a difference.

Local groups said they would value networking events and activities which bring insight and experience together from across the Urban Village areas.

WHAT'S HAPPENED

TACKLING VACANCY AND DERELICTION

A shared learning event to address the issues of tackling Vacancy and Dereliction took place in June 2017 to support the work to improve the physical environment in Urban Village areas.

Presentations were delivered by community representatives from East Belfast and Derry-Londonderry and speakers from the Department for Communities, Belfast City Council, Derry City and Strabane District Council, and the NI Housing Executive.

The speakers highlighted approaches making a difference locally and on a city wide and regional basis. The workshop generated a range of ideas and suggestions to inform coordinated and innovative approaches.

This is helping to shape capital investment and associated programmes to tackle vacancy and dereliction as part of the Urban Villages Initiative.

WHAT'S COMING UP

HARNESSING THE FULL BENEFITS OF COMMUNITY ALLOTMENTS

Colin Allotments, West Belfast, 29 November 2017

The Colin Allotments Healthy Living Centre is a social enterprise which has turned a derelict site into one of the region's biggest community allotment projects.

It includes innovative buildings constructed from repurposed industrial shipping containers. It provides horticultural courses and cookery classes. The centre is also used by schools, Men's Shed groups and public bodies to support innovative approaches to health and well-being and community engagement.

WHAT'S COMING UP

HEALTH AND WELL-BEING
Derry~Londonderry,
26 January 2018

Health and well-being is increasingly a key focus of a diverse range of local groups and public bodies working with communities across the region. This includes tackling mental health challenges and particularly those facing young people.

Often there is an emphasis on building resilience – including the range of financial advice and other support services available to families. Innovative collaborations and sharing learning can maximise the impact and reach of this work.

WHAT'S COMING UP

DIGITAL YOUTH
South Belfast,
27 February 2018

Digital skills now underpin many career and entrepreneurial opportunities.

But how do we make these opportunities more accessible to young people from Urban Village areas and other similar places?

The Digital Youth event will highlight school based and innovative community led approaches to inspiring and supporting young people.

It will help community groups and educators to build on what works and develop partnerships promoting multiple career paths for young people and ways they can flourish.

WHAT'S COMING UP

COMMUNITY LED APPROACHES TO TOURISM
East Belfast, 8 March 2018

Local groups across Urban Village areas are exploring ways to maximise the potential of tourism initiatives in their communities.

This includes helping local people to tell their stories and shape authentic perspectives on tourism narratives and activities covering the areas where they live.

A diverse range of public bodies and organisations can support local groups in devising inclusive approaches to remembering the past, content generation and audience development.

This shared learning event will highlight collaborative and strategic opportunities to build local capacity; maximise community benefit and the longer term impact and sustainability of local tourism initiatives.
