

Family Proceedings Rules (Northern Ireland) 1996
SR (NI) 1996/322

Up-dated to 1 Jan 2017

In compiling the version of the Rules the compiler has sought to up-date statutory references, by noting where a statutory provision has been repealed and, where appropriate, by inserting in square brackets a reference to the corresponding provision of the statute which replaces it and which has effect by virtue of the Interpretation Act 1978 section 17(2) and the Interpretation Act (NI) 1954 section 29.

This version sets out the Rules as amended to the present date.

At this stage the text of only a few forms is given in full, because unfortunately they are in image form on the legislation website. Others will be added in due course.

"person under disability" means a person who is a minor or a person who by reason of mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 is incapable of managing and administering his property and affairs.

(2) So far as they relate to minors who are the subject of applications the provisions of this Part shall not apply to proceedings which are specified proceedings within the meaning of Article 60(6) of the Order of 1995 (NI 2) and this Part shall have effect subject to the said Article 60(6) and Part IV.

(3) Rule 6.3 shall apply only to proceedings under the Order of 1995.

Person under disability must sue by next friend etc

6.2. - (1) A person under disability may begin and prosecute any family proceedings by his next friend and may defend any such proceedings by his guardian ad litem and, except as otherwise provided by this rule, it shall not be necessary for a guardian ad litem to be appointed by the court.

(2) No person's name shall be used in any proceedings as next friend of a person under disability unless he is the Official Solicitor or the documents mentioned in paragraph (6) have been filed.

(3) Where the disability of a person who is entitled to defend any family proceedings is not solely due to minority, the Official Solicitor shall, if he consents, be guardian ad litem; but at any stage of the proceedings an application may be made (on not less than 4 days' notice to the Official Solicitor, if he has consented to act) for the appointment of some other person as guardian; and there shall be filed in support of any application under this paragraph the documents mentioned in paragraph (6).

(4) Where a petition, answer, application or originating summons, has been served on a person whom there is reasonable ground for believing to be a person under disability and no notice of intention to defend has been given or answer or affidavit in answer filed on his behalf, the party at whose instance the document was served shall, before taking any farther step in the proceedings, apply to the Master for directions as to whether a guardian ad litem should be appointed to act for that person in the cause, and on any such application the Master may, if he considers it necessary in order to protect the interest of the person served, order that some proper person be appointed his guardian ad litem.

(5) No notice of intention to defend shall be given, or answer or affidavit in answer filed (by or on behalf of a person under disability) unless the person giving the notice or filing the answer or affidavit-

Valentine Family Proceedings Rules to Jan 2017

 - (b) in any other case, has filed the documents mentioned in paragraph (6).
- (6) The documents referred to in paragraphs (2), (3) and (5) are-
- (a) a written consent to act by the proposed next friend or guardian ad litem;
 - (b) a certificate by the solicitor acting for the person under disability -

Certain minors may sue without next friend etc [am. SR (NI) 1999/88]

6.3. - (1) Where a person entitled to begin, prosecute or defend any proceedings to which this rule applies, is a minor to whom this Part applies, he may subject to paragraph (3), begin, prosecute or defend, as the case may be, such proceedings without a next friend or guardian ad litem-

- (a) where he has obtained the leave of the court for that purpose; or
 - (b) where a solicitor-
 - (i) considers that the minor is able, having regard to his understanding, to give instructions in relation to the proceedings; and
 - (ii) has accepted instructions from the minor to act for him in the proceedings and, where the proceedings have begun, is so acting.
- (2) A minor shall be entitled to apply for the leave of the court under paragraph (1)(a) without a next friend or guardian ad litem either-
- (a) by filing a written request for leave setting out the reasons for the application, or
 - (b) by making an oral request for leave at any hearing in the proceedings.
- (3) On considering a request for leave filed under paragraph (2)(a), the court shall either-
- (a) grant the request, whereupon the proper officer or chief clerk shall communicate the decision to the minor and, where the leave relates to the prosecution or defence of existing proceedings, to the other parties to those proceedings, or
 - (b) direct that the request be heard ex parte, whereupon the proper officer or chief clerk shall fix a date for such a hearing and give to the minor making the request such notice of the date so fixed as the court may direct.
- (4) Where a minor has a next friend or guardian ad litem in proceedings and the minor wishes to prosecute or defend the remaining stages of the proceedings without a next friend or guardian ad litem, the minor may apply to the court for leave for that purpose and for the removal of the next friend or guardian ad litem; and paragraph (2) shall apply to the application as if it were an application under paragraph (1)(a).
- (5) On considering a request filed under paragraph (2) by virtue of paragraph (4), the court shall either-

(b) grant leave under paragraph (4) and remove a next friend or guardian ad litem,

(6A) In exercising its powers under paragraph (6) the court may order the next friend or guardian ad litem to take such part in the proceedings as the court may direct.

(8) The court may revoke any leave granted under paragraph (1)(a) where it considers that the child does not have sufficient understanding to participate as a party in the proceedings concerned without a next friend or guardian ad litem.

(9) Without prejudice to any requirement of CCR Order 43 rule 2 or RscJ Order 67, where a solicitor is acting for a minor in proceedings which the minor is prosecuting or defending without a next friend or guardian ad litem by virtue of paragraph (1)(b) and either of the conditions specified in the paragraph (1)(b)(i) and (ii) cease to be fulfilled, he shall forthwith so inform the court.

(10) Where-the court may, if it considers it necessary in order to protect the interests of the minor concerned, order that some proper person be appointed his next friend or guardian ad litem.

(11) Where a minor is of sufficient understanding to begin, prosecute or defend proceedings without a next friend or guardian ad litem-

(a) he may nevertheless begin, prosecute or defend them by his next friend or guardian ad litem; and

(b) where he is prosecuting or defending proceedings by his next friend or guardian ad litem, the respective powers and duties of the minor and next friend or guardian ad litem, except those conferred or imposed by this rule shall not be affected by the minor's ability to dispense with a next friend or guardian ad litem under the provisions of this rule.

Notes for Guidance

Section 1.

There are three types of applicant. The person to be protected, someone acting on their behalf and a relevant third party.

If you are the person to be protected and are applying yourself for an order, with or without legal representation, you are also the applicant. Fill in section 1 only, and then go to section 3.

A relevant third party applicant is a person or organisation that is allowed to make an application on behalf of another without the leave of the court.

Only the Department of Finance can make a person or organisation a relevant third party.

If you are not a relevant third party and you are not the person who is to be protected by the order you can still make the application, but you will need to obtain the court's permission. The court can give you the form to apply for permission.

Address details

If you do not wish your address to be made known to the respondent, leave the space on the form blank and complete Confidential Address Form C5. The court can give you this form.

Section 2 - Person to be protected

This section only needs to be completed if you are applying on behalf of someone. If you are the person to be protected by the order, leave this section blank.

Address details

If you do not wish the address of the person to be protected to be made known to the respondent, leave the space blank and complete Confidential Address Form C5. The court can give you this form.

Section 4 – The Order

A forced marriage protection order protects a person from being forced into marriage or from remaining in a forced marriage. The court could, for example, order that the respondent does not take you abroad to be forced into marriage, behaves in a different way, hands over your passport and travel documents to the court.

in this section or in a separate statement say why you are applying and give full details.

Urgent Orders

Valentine Family Proceedings Rules to Jan 2017

An urgent order made by the court before notice of the application is served on the respondent is called an ex-parte order. In deciding whether to make an ex-parte order the court will consider all the circumstances of the case, including:

- any risk of significant harm to the person to be protected or another person if the order is not made immediately
- whether it is likely that the applicant will be deterred or prevented from pursuing the application if an order is not made immediately
- whether there is reason to believe that the respondent is aware of the proceedings but is deliberately evading service and that the person to be protected or the applicant will be seriously prejudiced by the delay involved.

If the application is made ex-parte it must be supported by a sworn statement explaining why it is not being served on the respondent.

If the court makes an ex-parte order, it must give the respondent an opportunity to make representations about the order as soon as just and convenient at a full hearing.
