What is a Statement of Public Participation?

1. DAERA¹ as the Marine Plan Authority for Northern Ireland, is preparing the Marine Plan for Northern Ireland (the Marine Plan).
2. The Marine Plan will inform and guide the regulation, management, use and protection of the Northern Ireland marine area.
3. The Statement of Public Participation² (SPP) sets out how and when stakeholders can be involved in the plan making process. The SPP provides transparency for stakeholders and explains what we will do with the views and opinions expressed during the consultation on the Marine Plan for Northern Ireland.

Why are we publishing this Revised Statement of Public Participation?

4. The SPP was originally published in 2012 and marked the beginning of the marine planning process in Northern Ireland. It was reviewed in 2013 and 2015, as development of the Marine Plan progressed. The timetable for publication of the Marine Plan has changed and in order to keep stakeholders informed of progress, we have decided that another review of the SPP is necessary.
5. The Marine Plan for Northern Ireland (and its associated documents³) has been drafted, and a revised timetable produced. This will inform stakeholders of the next few stages of the process and when they can engage.

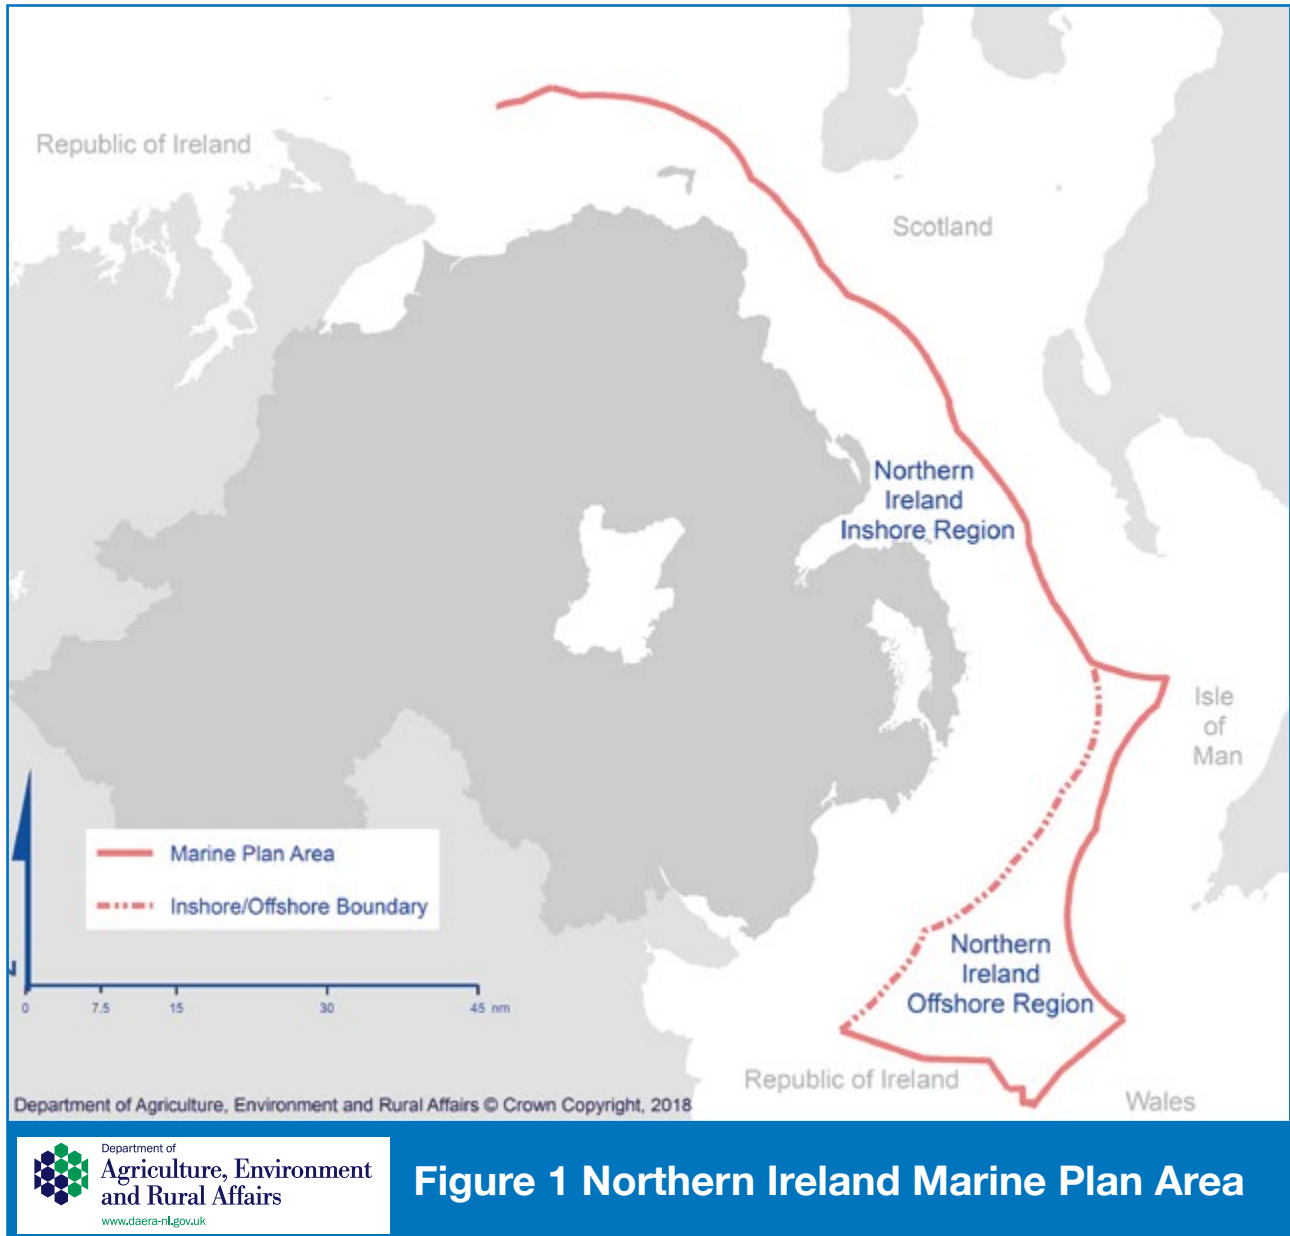

¹ The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs.

² The Statement of Public Participation (SPP) is a requirement under both the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 and the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013.

³ The Marine Plan is accompanied by a Sustainability Appraisal, which also incorporates a Strategic Environmental Assessment, a Habitats Regulations Assessment, an Equality and Human Rights Impact Screening exercise, a Partial Regulatory Impact Assessment and a Rural Proofing Assessment.

Where is the Northern Ireland Marine Plan Area?

- The Northern Ireland Marine Plan area, which comprises both inshore and offshore regions, abuts the marine areas of Scotland, Wales, the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland, as shown in Figure 1, below.

Who is a stakeholder? Who will we engage with?

7. This document is for anyone or any group likely to be interested in or affected by, policies or proposals to be contained in the Marine Plan. This will involve a wide variety of people, including those who live or work near the sea, those who derive their livelihood from the sea, as well as those who enjoy it, care about it or manage it in some way. It will include industry groups, Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs), Local Councils, Statutory partners and other government bodies, bordering Administrations, the general public, local communities and local interest groups. By taking part in this plan making process you can influence the decisions being made on the Marine Plan.

How do we intend to engage?

8. There will be a public consultation on the Marine Plan. The DAERA Marine Plan team is committed to reaching a wide range of stakeholders. We plan to deliver information through our website⁴, newsletter and via email.

Our Principles of Engagement

We will:

- involve people early on and encourage as high a level of participation as possible, throughout the plan preparation process;
- engage with interested persons and organisations at the appropriate time, employing effective engagement methods and allowing sufficient time for meaningful consultation;
- undertake stakeholder engagement in an open and transparent manner;
- be clear in the purpose of any engagement, and provide easily understood information and feedback to help people participate;
- seek, wherever possible, to combine stakeholder engagement on the plan with other related issues, in order to maximise use of marine stakeholder time;
- respect the diversity of people and their lifestyles and give people a fair opportunity to have their voice heard, regardless of gender, age, race, abilities, sexual orientation, community background, circumstances or wherever they live;
- be consistent in the approach to public participation and make documents publicly available on our website⁵, including availability in alternative formats where appropriate; and communicate clearly.
