1. WHO WE ARE

i. Introduction

The Community Relations Council was established in 1990 to lead and support change towards reconciliation, tolerance, and mutual trust; and to be a catalyst for good inter-community and inter-cultural relationships in the region. The Community Relations Council is an Executive Non-Departmental Public Body of The Executive Office, a charity and a company limited by guarantee. We promote the benefits of good relations policies and practice at regional, institutional, local, and community levels. We advocate for acknowledgment of our interconnectedness; challenging sectarianism, racism and all the related activities that are motivated by hatred. We distribute grant aid on behalf of The Executive Office; provide development support; identify and share best practice; and facilitate wide community engagement on effective approaches to peace-building and good, shared community relationships.

ii. The Community Relations Council Board and Staff

The Board of the Community Relations Council has 9 members and is chaired by Mr. Martin McDonald. The Board meets every 6 weeks and is supported in its governance role by the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee which also meets on a six weekly cycle, normally 2 weeks before the Board. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Community Relations Council is responsible for the day to day management of the organisation. The CEO is supported by three Directors: Director of Funding and Development, Director of Engagement and Director of Finance, Personnel and Administration. The Senior Management Team is responsible for the leadership, prioritisation and delivery of the work programme within the annual budget. The staffing structure of the CRC is currently made up of 16 employees. We encourage and develop our employees to enhance the contribution they make to the CRC's work and the issues important to developing good community relations. Although this is a small staff, the CRC routinely works in partnership across the region with other bodies that have good relations objectives.

2. HOW WE WORK

i. Our Vision

A diverse, shared and interconnected society.

ii. Our Values

Human dignity is the fundamental basis for good community relations. In that context, the Community Relations Council is guided by the following values and beliefs:

- Interconnectedness: CRC recognises the importance of living well together and the interdependence of personal and community experiences of all those living and working in Northern Ireland. We believe in inclusive and open dialogue. The CRC exists to promote good relations based on trust, respect, inclusion and interconnectedness.
- Diversity: We believe that our diversity of identities and cultures in Northern Ireland enriches life and is to be celebrated.
- Equity and Equality: CRC is committed to fair treatment for all, through open access to resources, structures and decision-making processes at all levels of society, as an essential basis for good community relations.
- Respect and dignity: CRC is committed to human rights, inter-cultural respect, freedom of expression and movement (whether expressed through religious, ethnic or political background) and supports the peaceful expression of variety and difference. CRC therefore recognises non-violence as an essential condition for the growth of trust, dialogue and conflict transformation.
- The common good: CRC believes that trusting community relationships and living well together contributes to sustainable development, the general well-being of our society and the common good.
- Openness, Transparency and Accountability: To maintain trust and confidence in our work as a provider of public services CRC embraces these values in all its work.

3. OUR STRATEGY AND HOW WE INTEND TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

i. The strategic themes of the CRC:

The overall aim of the Community Relations Council Delivery Plan 2020-21 is to support our Strategic Plan to promote good relations among the citizens and communities of Northern Ireland and the delivery of the draft Programme for Government (PfG) and the Together: Building a United Community (T:BUC) strategy.

ii. Draft Programme for Government 2016-21

The Northern Ireland Executive's Outcomes Delivery Plan is accessible at:

<https://www.executiveoffice-ni.gov.uk/publications/outcomes-delivery-plan-201819>

It has an outcome focus which aims to devise a framework that will ensure that actions taken by government and its partners will bring about a real difference to society. Peace-building and improving community relations contribute to the conditions in which all of the PfG indicators are more likely to be achieved. However there are a number of PfG indicators and outcomes to which the work of the Community Relations Council is particularly relevant:

Indicators:

- 26. Increase respect for each other
- 31. Increase shared space
- 35. Increase reconciliation

The work of the Community Relations Council also contributes indirectly to:

- 1. Reduce crime (relevant to CRC, crime motivated by sectarianism or racism)
- 27. Improve cultural participation
- 28. Increase the confidence and capability of people and communities
- 30. Improve our attractiveness as a destination
- 40. Improve our international reputation

Outcomes:

- 7. We have a safe community where we respect the law and each other
- 9. We are a shared, welcoming and confident society that respects diversity
- 10. We have created a place where people want to live and work, to visit and invest

iii. Together: Building a United Community (T:BUC)

Our plan aims to contribute towards the delivery of the T:BUC priorities and associated outcomes. The Strategy outlines how Government, community and individuals will work together to build a united community and achieve change against 4 key priorities. The strategy is accessible at: Together: Building a United Community - \(TBUC\) | The Executive Office).

iv. The structure of our Delivery Plan 2020/21:

- Key objectives and indicators are grouped by the Community Relations Council's 3 Key Corporate themes (in the areas of Funding, Engagement and Trusted, effective Public Service)
- Actions, activities, outputs are identified
- We have provided information on how they will be measured
- In each case a Senior Responsible Officer is identified; and
- Financial resource is allocated to individual components or where more appropriate, to the overall area of activity

Progress will be colour coded using a traffic light (RAG) status, with blue indicating that the target has been met:

Blue	Completed targets
Green	Target will be met with no issues identified
Amber	It is not currently on target but is being monitored and action is being taken which is likely to ensure it is brought back on target.
Red	There is a strong likelihood based on trends or evidence that the target will not be achieved, or the target has been missed.

4. HOW WE WILL KNOW IF WE ARE MAKING A DIFFERENCE

- ▶ In adopting an outcomes based accountability approach the Community Relations Council has worked collaboratively with The Executive Office to draft strategic outcomes for the funding we provide on behalf of government. The outcomes are aligned to the draft Programme for Government and the policy Together: Building a United Community.
- ▶ The indicators and measures contained in the Community Relations Council Outcome Delivery Plan are set at an organisational performance level to distinguish the difference the Community Relations Council and the work it funds can make and for which it can be held to account.
- ▶ In our grant making an outcomes based approach has been designed into our application, assessment, performance monitoring and evaluation processes (see appendix 1). In relation to our engagement work we are developing a new outcomes framework.
- ▶ Progress is monitored by the CRC's Senior Management Team; the CRC's Board; and The Executive Office. The risks to the CRC and delivery of its plans are monitored by the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee.
